

Katie Crocker - CEO - AMSSA

Katie Crocker is the Chief Executive Officer of AMSSA, a British Columbia provincial umbrella association that strengthens over 90 member agencies as well as hundreds of community stakeholder agencies who serve immigrants and newcomers. Katie represents the BC Settlement Sector on the National Settlement and Integration Council and the Settlement and Integration Policy Program Committee. Katie is on the Executive Committee of the UBC Centre for Migration Studies, and is the Co-Chair of the Pathways to Prosperity Research Partnership. Along with her background in not-for-profit management and her knowledge of the settlement and integration sector, Katie brings an expertise in supporting neurodiverse children and their families as a mother of a child with Autism and is the Vice-Chair of the Board of Directors of UNITI. She has a deep interest in the settlement and integration journey of newcomers and strives to learn about and take accountability for the inherent privilege she has to live, work and raise her children on these unceded territories that have been stewarded by First Nations since time immemorial.

Since joining AMSSA in 2014, she has worked with the Federal and Provincial governments to grow AMSSA's technological expertise to provide online and e-learning opportunities for service providers throughout BC as well as on a national level. She excels at working collaboratively with teams and external partners to support diversity and inclusion in our communities and consistently seeks innovative and streamlined ways to bring services to those in need. She has an extensive experience of working with the AMSSA membership to enhance their service delivery, provide training and capacity building opportunities, and engage in meaningful consultation processes. Katie holds a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology and a Masters of Business Administration.
