

Saša Loggin – Executive Director – Skeena Diversity Society

Saša Loggin moved to Canada from the former Czechoslovakia in 1991. She studied System Analysis at the Prague School of Economics. In Canada, she applied her knowledge and skills in the field of community development and leadership. She has called Terrace, BC her home since 1994.

She joined Skeena Diversity in 2000, working first as its Coordinator, and later serving as its Board Chair. In 2010, she was named the Project and then Executive Director, overseeing expansion of Skeena Diversity Society's scope and reach through its Welcome Centre in downtown Terrace.

Skeena Diversity has been serving newcomers, creating intercultural and community connections, contributing towards a more welcoming and inclusive community.
